BETHLEHEM NEWS.

The Sunday School at Bethlehem has not gone into winter quarters.

I think the young ought to have encouragement in their christian work. God wants us to work all the time, not part. The Sunday school is an institution for the young to help them on towards heaven.

Married at the Easley Parsonage, by Rev. W. E. Wiggins, Dec. 25th, Miss Maxie Smith of Easley to Mr. Walker Ellison of Anderson county. The bride and groom spent a few days following their marriage with the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. R. Durham. Jan. 7 1902 F. V. F.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Martha Boroughs, widow of James E. Boroughs, on Thursday Dec. 26, 1901, Miss Dorsie Boroughs and Mr. Samuel C. Boggs of Central were joined in holy wedlock.

In the presence of a large number of invited guests of both friends and relatives. The parlor was tastefully decorated with evergreens, a rostrum was constructed of cedar and holly leaves and berries which contributed much to grace the occasion. At twelve o'clock the officiating minister, W. C. Seaborn entered, the stand, when six beautiful maids all dressed in white on each side of the stand, namely: Miss Leila and Lillie Boroughs and Mattie Kennemore, Dora and May Jones. Then led the groom and leaving on his lovely bride, stopping in front of the minister then taking upon themselves the obligation of husband and wife after the ceremony they were the recipients of congratulations and a goodly number of useful presents, afterwards all were invited into the dining room where a bountiful feast awaited them.

Miss Dorsie was one of the most popular young ladies of this community and is a beautiful and charming young lady, greatly admired by a host of friends who regret losing her from their midst.

Mr. Boggs is a promising young business man and number his friends by the score, they have the best wishes of many friends through out the county.

Praters, S. C. Dec 30-1901.

CHILDREN POISONED.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright, by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for cough, croup and lung trouble, and is the most prominent cough medicine that is not an opiate or other poison.—BOLT & THORNLEY.

A CELEBRATION.

Mr. Editor: Will you favor me with space in your paper for the following comments and mentions of the celebration of the Quincentennial of the Ebinezer colored Baptist church.

The main purpose of this article will be approached by the following facts and comments.

In the month of April, 1900 the Ebinezer Baptist church offered me a call to serve as pastor. The said call was accepted and I entered upon my duties as pastor May 1900. The condition of the church at the time was not at all desired. This may, in a measure be attributed to misunderstandings, misgivings, and irregularities in the church itself, with the view of developing a more desirable state of affairs a careful survey, of the whole matter was taken, and a strict course of action was adopted. The carrying out of this course of action has been attended with a little friction, but this was due to a lack, on part of some of the brethren to see the far-reaching purpose intended and not from meanness of heart. My chief purpose and aim was, and is now, and will continue to be, to improve the spiritual and material condition of the church, and among the many pressing needs, of the church seen and felt by all, was a more desirable house of worship. The pulpit at once became the center of agitation. At first it was extensively felt, that the fractured condition of the church was of such as to not guarantee success. But finally a pressure was brought to bear to arouse the people as to make them feel that something must be done, and that something must be done, which conviction led to the appointment of a building committee. For some reason the church honored the writer with chairmanship of the movement.

Our work was to get up plans and lead in erecting a new house of worship on the lot, with Deacon I. S. Ferguson assistant chairman, Rev. C. T. Miller, Secretary and Deacon H. Lawrence, Treasurer. The work was begun Nov. 1900 and by the last of January 1901 all the framing was on the lot. Short crops caused money to be unusually scarce, and wisdom dictated our stopping until Sept. 1901, at which time the old house was torn away, since then a large up-to-date church house has been erected. The house in floor surface contains over 2000 feet, and when completed will be worthy of the town of Pickens or most any other town. The contract of building was given to Mr. S. McIlwain, and the work is well on to completion, as contemplated, and what yet remains to be done will be finished by the 17th inst, at which time the work will be turned over to the Building Committee for reception or rejection. The latter is not anticipated. The committee feels bound to congratulate the members for their unflinching support given to the work. Our friends have shown unflinching interest in the work. They have given their money and influence in the movement, and are yet giving it. Pickens is made up of a generous set of white people. This is shown on business lines generally and has been manifested in our struggle to build. Just the amount given by our white friends the writer cannot tell in this article, but we endeavored to keep an account and the whole will be known later. The work will close up with a debt of not less than $250 or $275, but this doesn't by any means compare with what has been done. We will on entering our new house celebrate our Quincentennial. The following will be the program for that special occasion.

Friday, 17th inst 1st day.
7:30 p. m. The introductory sermon—Rev. George Earle.

NOTICE PENSIONERS.

The County Pension Board will meet at Pickens C. H. on Monday, January 20th, 1902 for the purpose of examining new applications of ex-Confederate soldiers, sailors and widows, who are applicants for pensions, under the act approved Feb. 19, 1900, and for the purpose of reviving the pension list of 1901. Those who received pensions in 1901 do not have to make new applications. We would be pleased to have any information in regard to those pensioners who have died or moved away within the last year.
